SATURDAY EVENING F B 3. 1894.

THE LEGISLATURE.-The Legislature is literally doing nothing. The best thing it can do will be an adjournment. If a State convention is to be called. let the example of the Louisiana and Mississippi be followed, and provisi a be made for one Legislature in every four years with a fixed salary, and an un imited term. The all engrossing topic with the present Legislature seem to be to a range for free passes and increased pay. Co. Catlett Gibson, of Culpeper, comes out bold by for both, whilst others probably more anxious are fighting shy.—Fredericksburg-Lauce.
